

Serious Incident Advisory & Independent Reviews

Reconstruct provides expert independent consultancy and advisory support for organisations responding to serious incidents, including the serious harm or death of a service user. Our experienced social care consultants offer clear, compassionate and compliant guidance during the most critical and challenging situations.

We support organisations to:

- Understand the circumstances surrounding a serious event
- Ensure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements
- Review decision-making, practice and safeguarding responses
- Prepare for external scrutiny, audits or learning reviews

Our consultants provide timely, structured advice, including document review, professional guidance and a clear outcome report with recommendations to support learning, accountability and improved safeguarding practice.

We also conduct independent reviews of internal incident assessments, offering objective oversight to ensure processes are thorough, evidence-based and aligned with best practice.
